Mr. AYCRIGG, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Jacob Winter, report :

That the petitioner is a pensioner of the United States, having been placed on the pension roll on the 28th day of February, 1834 ; he now asks that the pay that would have been received by him, had he made application in 1814, may be granted him. The petitioner has received a pension from the date of the completion of his testimony. The committee report against the prayer of the petitioner.
